

BREVETTES.

Hot Weather.
Twelve hours and twenty-five minutes to Memphis.
The veto message will be found on our first page.
The vicinity north of Jackson is daily visited with fine rains.
Col. Power is at Oxford attending Commencement exercises.

Train now run through from New Orleans to Jackson in nine hours.
Read the beautiful poem on our first page entitled "The Power of the Press."

Two State and one United States officer are members of the Board of Aldermen of this city.
A full account of the Masonic celebration of Friday last will be found under head of "Masonic Department."

John Wesley Lunday was brought before Mayor Clinton yesterday for a hearing, upon a default of $1000 bail was remanded, and will appear for Memphis leaving Jackson on the 2 A. M. train, arriving in Memphis at 2:25 in the afternoon—12 hours and 25 minutes.

QUICK TIME—A post office money order drawn on the 3d of June in Switzerland, reached Jackson on the 18th—just fifteen days.

There is the same disposition on the part of many persons to complain of the hot weather, than there was of the cold a few weeks since.

T. S. Marshall Peyton has adjourned the United States Circuit Court, by order of Judge Hill, from 4th Monday in June to 1st Monday in July.

Mr. McComb, the new Manager of the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad proposed to complete the extension to Kosciusko within twelve months.

A sovereign remedy, "Equine's."

To Mr. A. L. Hatch, of the Central Nurseries, are indebted for a lot of fine, juicy peaches of the "Hale's Early" variety. Mr. Hatch gives his entire attention to the business of Horticulture and Floriculture, and therefore always has the best and earliest fruits in the market, as well as a fine stock of young trees always for sale.

Be wise and use Equine Remedies.

Heath & Home for this week (dated June 25th) contains the first of a series of serials entitled "Facts for the Ladies." Thoughts, by John Thomas, who is no other than Petroleum V. Nasby. The great humorist will take an honest country boy to the city, conduct him through the usual experience, and restore him to his home a peaceful, honest, and temperate life of the farmer is the best and safest life that can be lived. This is a lesson greatly need at this time, and Nasby is the man to teach it.

Use Equine Remedies and be your own Doctor.

Appointments of Grand Lecturers.

Pleasant Grove Lodge, No. 363, July 4, 3 days.
By Mr. Dixon, 135, 15, 1.
Laurie Hill, 135, 15, 1.
Walnut Grove, 212, 19, 1.
Grand Hope, 212, 19, 1.
Gale River, 142, 15, 1.
Camden, 74, 23, 3.
Homestead, 168, 27, 1.
Pine Bluff, 17, 15, 1.
Yazoo, 42, 29, 1.
Enslay, 248, 30, 1.
Bureau, 17, 15, 1.
H. C. ROBINSON, Grand Lecturer.

Equine Remedies are warranted.

COMPLIMENT TO A JACKSON BOY.

We find the following handsome compliment in the Planter's Banner, published at Franklin, Louisiana:
This week our foreman, Mr. Will L. Smylie, closes his connection with this office. He will go to take charge of an office in Louisiana. We regret to lose him, but he is ambitious to be more than a planter, and it would be ungenerous for us to insist that he should sacrifice his interests and a laudable ambition to promote our individual welfare.

Mr. Smylie has been foreman in the Banner office for fifteen months. He has had a large share of the mechanical department of the paper, and has greatly improved his appearance. The editor of this paper is not a printer, and he wishes it distinctly understood that he has no special knowledge of the printing business, and that he is not a printer, and he wishes it distinctly understood that he has no special knowledge of the printing business, and that he is not a printer.

Use Equine Remedies and avoid mischief.

A Remedy for Humpbacks.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious know-nothings, with which society is so often surrounded, the most dangerous is the one who attempts to teach the ignorant, and the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so-called "Bitters" is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the vendors have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon the ground that they are "Bitters" and are endeavoring to coax in invective into substituting trash for a standard remedy, long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicine known to mankind.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but the deluged and suffering humanity has direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

Facts for the Ladies.

Nearly six years ago I ordered one of your Sewing Machines, and since then I have used it, not only all the ordinary family sewing, but also all millinery and mantua-making, besides frequently substituting upon the tailor's pecuniary proclivities, and this is the best machine I ever owned. Several of them were given, engaged in business, and I have never had a stitch in which, piecing, quilting and binding was done on the machine. When I purchased it, I was told that it was the best worked on any kind of a machine. The agent was willing and there was no doubt in my mind that it was the best. I have never had a stitch in which, piecing, quilting and binding was done on the machine. When I purchased it, I was told that it was the best worked on any kind of a machine. The agent was willing and there was no doubt in my mind that it was the best.

It has been said that there is no one in the sewing-birds which has saved.

Roxabell, Ohio.

Mrs. A. M. GAGE.

MISSISSIPPI LEGISLATURE.

NINETY-EIGHTH DAY.

SENATE.

Friday, June 24, 1870.
Mr. Mygatt gave notice of the introduction of a bill to be entitled an act to incorporate the Mississippi Union Relief Association.
The following bills were introduced:
By Mr. Seal—To remove the disabilities of certain minor children of Elizabeth A. Apperton, of Marion county.
By Mr. Strickland—To be entitled an act for the relief of Angelo Miazza.
By Mr. Leshman—An act to provide for the registration of electors of this State.
By Mr. Strickland—An act relating to hawking and potholing.
The following bills passed:
An act to amend Article I, chapter 18 of the Revised Code.
An act to change the name of Henry Tredwell.

HOUSE.

To incorporate Whitworth Female College in the town of Brookhaven, Lincoln county.
To incorporate the Choctaw College in the town of Choctawhatchee, Choctaw county.
To incorporate the Zion Hill Baptist Church in the town of Vicksburg.
To incorporate the town of Senatobia in DeSoto county.
An act supplemental to an act, entitled an act in relation to Circuit Court Judges, passed April 22, 1870, and changing the time for holding the same in Noxubee county.

NINETY-NINTH DAY.

SENATE.

Saturday, June 25, 1870.

The 29th Session of the School Bill occupied the attention of the Senate all day.

HOUSE.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Lynch—to repeal an act to authorize the Board of Police of the city of Jackson to erect toll bridges in said city.
By Mr. Underwood—for the relief of tax payers in Chickasaw county.
By Mr. Mayson—to authorize James W. Wallace and Melvin Wallace his wife, residing in the town of Vicksburg, to sell the Turner, daughter of Mary Ann Turner, their legitimate child.
By Mr. Osborn—to incorporate the East Pascagoula Hotel Company.
By Mr. Osborn—to authorize the construction of a railroad in the town of East Pascagoula.
By Mr. Phillips—for the relief of John G. White and E. D. Sallis, of Itawamba county.
By Mr. Vaughn—authorizing the Governor to appoint a Commissioner of the State to purchase the interest of Mrs. Sarah L. Denton in the State University.
By Mr. Driver, executor of E. D. Driver, deceased.

By Mr. Moore—to amend the charter of the city of Meridian.

By Mr. Snowden—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

By Mr. Moore—to amend an act for the limitation of action.

Masonic Department.

CONDUCTED BY J. L. POWER.

Contributions to this Department are solicited from the Craft throughout the State.

ST. JOHN'S DAY AT JACKSON.

The Masonic demonstration on Friday last surpassed in its extent, and in the grandeur of all its details, any Anniversary celebration that we have yet witnessed in Mississippi. The brethren of Jackson had made preparations for a host of guests, and in all respects they were equal to the occasion. But it is to the Committee of the chief credit is due, and the fraternity of the city and our neighboring cities so testified in many expressions of genuine compliment. They, and they only, had charge of the hospitalities, and bountifully did they dispense them.

It had been the desire of the Jackson brethren, for several years past, to celebrate the Anniversary of St. John the Baptist—Last year, they were anticipated by the brethren of Canton. At the Grand Conclave of the Grand Commandery, held in January last, a resolution was adopted calling a general gathering of the Sir Knights at Jackson on the 24th of June. This action made it somewhat incumbent on the Sir Knights of Jackson to prepare for the occasion, and most heartily did they accept the co-operation of the other Masonic Bodies.

The only cause for regret at the result is, that more of the Commanderies were not represented. The Sir Knights of Holly Springs Commandery sent a sufficient and courteous representation for their absence. There were delegates from the Commandery of St. Nicholas, Lexington or Water Valley, but we had a fine delegation of chivalrous neighbors of the Hill City, headed by Sir Knight C. A. Manlove, Past R. E. Grand Commander, and the present E. Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery, No. 2. And the delegation was worthy of its assignment.

Delegations were here from the Lodges at Canton, Clinton, Bolton, Brooks, Raymond, Brandon, Byram, Terry and Cato. Among the Masonic dignitaries present were the M. W. Geo. R. Fearn, Grand Master; M. W. Thos. S. Gathright, Past Grand Master; R. E. Sir Chas. T. Bond, Grand Master; V. E. Sir Jno. A. Galbreath, Deputy Grand Commander; M. Rev. J. M. Lewis, Past Grand Chaplain, and present W. M. of Canton Lodge.

We were honored, also, with the presence of the delegation from the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana.

On the arrival of the morning train from Vicksburg, a procession was formed at the Railroad Junction and escorted by Mississippi Commandery, with music by the Canton Band, proceeded to the Odd Fellow's Hall, which had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

After music, and the Benediction, the procession was reformed, and proceeded to the Masonic Hall via State and Pearl streets, where the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, who had been graciously placed at the disposal of the Masonic fraternity. Here the Grand Commandery and the Grand Lodge were duly opened in the order named; after which the Grand Procession was formed under the direction of the Master of the Day, Rev. Wm. French of Vicksburg. The procession numbered about two hundred of all orders, and proceeded upon town according to the published programme, arriving at the Presbyterian Church at one o'clock. In a few minutes the church was filled to its utmost capacity, the north row of pews being occupied exclusively by ladies. A special choir, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Busch, had been organized, and the music was fully equal to the occasion.

After music, and prayer by the acting Grand Chaplain, Elder A. S. Hackett, Grand Master French introduced the Order of the Day, Past Grand Master Thos. S. Gathright. For more than an hour of eloquent and rapid delivery, he maintained the undivided attention of his intelligent audience, nor could admiration for some of the finest passages of his address be restrained. The address having been read, a copy of the address for publication, we hope to be able to lay it before our readers at an early day.

The Grand Commandery was opened in Ample and Knightly Form.

After the reading of the activities of the day, consisting of a grand procession, an oration by Sir Knight Thos. S. Gathright, and a sumptuous banquet spread by the Masonic fraternity of Jackson, and their devoted ladies, the Grand Commandery returned to its temporary Asylum, and was duly closed.

C. A. Manlove, Grand Commander.
J. L. POWER, Grand Recorder.

MASONIC ANNIVERSARY.

At a meeting of the Masonic Fraternity of Jackson, Miss., on June 24th, 1870, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, That our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to our brethren of Canton, Bolton, Brooks, Raymond, Brandon, Byram, Terry and Cato, for their presence, and for the interesting ceremonies of the day were crowned by a luxurious repast, over which the fraternal spirit of the day was